

Cache and Putah Creeks Lifeblood of the Region

*Seminar Series
2007*

Landscape Architecture Program

UC Davis

Fridays noon to one in 119 Wellman

- September 28* Eric Larsen, Landscape Architecture Program. Introduction to LDA 190
- October 5* David Robertson: Author and Professor Emeritus English Department UC Davis
- October 12* Rob Thayer: Author and Professor Emeritus Landscape Architecture Program UC Davis
- October 19* Lynnel Pollock: Executive Director Cache Creek Conservancy
- October 26* Julia McIver: Acting Director Yolo County Parks and Resources Department
- November 2* Joyce Gutstein/Margaret Kralovec: Joyce Gutstein, UCD John Muir Institute of the environment, co-director Putah-Cache Bioregion Project. Margaret Kralovec, Coordinator, Putah Creek Discovery Corridor Cooperative
- November 9* Ron Unger: Restoration Ecologist - EDAW
- November 16* Rich Marovich: Putah Creek Stream Keeper
- November 23* Holiday
- November 30* Melanie Truan: Wildlife Ecologist; Biomonitoring Director UCD Museum Wildlife and Fish Biology
- December 7* Ken Davis: Aquatic Biologist

The creeks are the lifeblood of our bioregion.