

LANDSCAPE ARCHITECTURE PRO-SEMINAR SERIES LDA190
FRIDAYS, 12:10-1:00pm
1150 HART HALL
FALL 2003

LANDSCAPE MANAGEMENT

Instructor: Loren Oki, Assistant Specialist, UC Cooperative Extension, UC Davis

- 9/26 Loren Oki, UC Cooperative Extension Assistant Specialist, Landscape Horticulture, UC Davis:
INTRODUCTION
- 10/3 Dave Burger, Professor
Dept. of Environmental Horticulture, UC Davis:
Overview of Plant Diagnostic Methods
- 10/10 Loren Oki
An Overview of Greenhouse and Nursery Production
- 10/17 Larry Costello, Horticulture Advisor
UC Cooperative Extension, San Mateo County:
Abiotic Disorders by Design
- 10/24 Darren Haver, Watershed Management Advisor,
UC Cooperative Extension, Orange County:
Irrigation Design & Management to Reduce Urban Pollution
- 10/31 Jim Geiger, Director of Communications,
USDA Center for Urban Forest Research:
What is the value of city trees? A research perspective
- 11/7 Pam Geisel, Horticulture Advisor
UC Cooperative Extension, Fresno County:
Selecting Nursery Stock & Training Young Plants to Avoid Future Problems
- 11/14 Robert Mazalewski, Horticulture Instructor,
Cuyamaca College, El Cajon, CA:
The Consequences of Improper Plant Selection in the Landscape
- 11/21 Ellen Zagory, Collections Development Manager,
UCD Arboretum:
Perennial Plants for Hot, Dry Climates
- 12/5 Marsha Prillwitz, Chief, Office of Water Use Efficiency,
California Department of Water Resources:
California's Water Future and the Important Role of Landscape Architects